Headteacher Message

Dear Parents and Carers,
Welcome back to a new academic year. As I'm sure you can imagine the focus and content of our newsletter changed last night due to the sad passing of the Queen Elizabeth II. Today, the whole school community joined the nation in the first day of 10, in mourning. School will continue as normal however celebration events will be cancelled during this time. Communication from schools will be limited to urgent and essential information only. Today in assembly the children and staff celebrated the life of Queen Elizabeth II and we paid our respects as a full school community. As always, we will be following all government guidelines. Once further information has been published I will communicate this to you.
