Headteacher Message

Dear Parent/Carer,
You should all now have received your timeslot for Parents Evening next week. Children's books will be available for viewing before and after your meeting and meetings will be kept to a strict 10 minutes to avoid delays and parents/carers waiting around. Whilst there, please take the time to complete our parental feedback form. On my travels into lessons this week it was a delight to join in with Year 3; learning how to research topics while taking notes linked to famous women in history. In Year 5, I was blown away by the enthusiasm and engagement from the children when learning about their book "Who let the Gods out?" A modern day twist on Greek Gods linking into the History topic this half term. And finally, in Year 4, children were learning the features of acrostics poem then having the opportunity to write one of their own. The learning across the school was infectious. We were lucky to have a visit from the local Police Officer this week, who delivered an assembly to our children on the importance of staying safe, and keeping others safe, during this time of the year. This sparked many an important and educational conversation with some classes. Have a lovely weekend. Mr D Kenny – Executive Headteacher
