Headteacher Message

Dear Parents and Carers,
I want to start my newsletter this week by acknowledging all the hard effort parents put into supporting World Book Day yesterday. The amount of time and energy some parents put in shows the unwavering support and dedication we all have in supporting children with reading. The children, and staff had an amazing day. If you haven't already, please join us on Twitter and see some of the fabulous costumes. Your support with the sponsored read is very much appreciated.

By now, the parents of all children with an individual learning plan should have met with the class teacher to review progress and next steps. Thank you to those parents on the gate who have given me some positive feedback. In addition, Mrs Humphries is now offering SEND parental surgeries each Thursday afternoon. If you would like to make use of this opportunity, please email the SEND team on SEND@DeanTrustParkView.co.uk. Furthermore, soon you will receive a copy of our first SEND newsletter that will be published each half term.

We would like to remind Parents/Carers that doors open at 8.20am. Our terrific timekeepers for this week are our Y1,2,3,4 and Y5 pupils. We nearly had a full house!

Enrichment Club

Next Thursday the 9th March, there will be NO enrichment clubs due to staff training.

Bikeability

Y5 will need suitable clothing and trainers to go outside on the bikes for their Bikeability session next week.

National Bed Month

This month is the start of National Bed Month. This is all about improving the nations sleep. Did you know that by switching an uncomfortable old bed to a lovely new one meant an extra 42 minutes of sleep! It's thought that a good night's sleep has amazing properties that make you healthier and happier, so jump into bed and get those extra hours of sleep in!

Oops I Did It Again

There are still parents who are not reading the messages sent out on the parent app and missing vital information. Please read these messages to stay up to date.
